

CT9 November 2018 Examination – Registration announcement

Introduction:

CT9: Business Awareness Online Module involves students taking part in a ten day online business game, and submitting seven completed exercises. Students who take the online examination will be required to do advance study involving online tutorials, and also an online examination following the ten days business game.

The format of Business awareness

What does this subject cover?

The main content of this practical examination involves looking at:

- Industry developments and challenges - an overview covering all practice areas
- Strategic thinking - case studies and problem solving techniques
- Business game - supporting the learning objectives of the course
- Professionalism and ethics - principles and case studies
- Personal development - an overview of lifelong learning and work based skills
- Legal principles

Based on this you will need to do some advance study, which should take approximately 20 hours.

This consists of:

- Online tutorials
- Reading material to prepare for the business game
- A case study to analyze on strategic thinking

It is essential that you carry out all the advance work.

By the end of the ten day business game students will submit their seven completed exercises.

The formal examination will be available to you from 16th November 2018 onwards after completing the business game, and should take less than two hours to complete. You need to pass this Examination in order to pass CT9, demonstrating that you understood the principles covered in the online tutorials and the business game.

Who can take the CT9 course?

The registration process will be on First Come First Served Basis and the batch will be open for all students to register.

What will be the fees and Batch size for the CT9 course?

Batch size will be of maximum Seventy Two students on First Come First Served Basis. Fees will be Rs 9,000/- which includes Examination and study material fees.

How frequently will be the CT9 course conducted?

Following a review of the demand for the CT9 online examination, this will be conducted to ten times in the year.
