

“Amity University Award”

- An award of Rs. 10,000/- would be given by Amity University, Uttar Pradesh for IAI member securing the highest marks in CT5 – General Insurance, Life and Health Contingencies examination and who has passed at least 3 other subjects of CT series i.e. he would have cleared at least 4 subjects inclusive of CT5. There will be two awards per year i.e. May & November examination respectively. If more than one student qualifies for an award, then it will be shared equally.
- The prize would be awarded at the annual Global Conference of Actuaries conducted by the IAI.
- This prize scheme is effective from the examinations conducted during the year 2008.”

For May 2008: -

Mr Neel Chheda for scoring Highest Marks in CT5 in May 2008 Examination and who has also passed additional 8 subjects in previous diets.

For November 2008: -

Mr Tandon Pavas scoring Highest Marks in CT5 in November 2008 Examination and who has passed additional 7 subjects in previous diets.